Deputy Director's Staff Meeting

Tuesday, 23 January 1961

Mr. McConnell asked whether the Deputy Director would sit on the Loyalty Board in a particularly high-level case. There was general discussion of the functions of the Loyalty Board and the propriety of the Deputy Directors' sitting on cases concerning officials directly under their control.

Mr. McConnell reported that he had been holding discussions with several personnel men on the subject of personnel procurement and that he believed he would have some recommendations at an early date.

Mr. McConnell said that Mr. Baird would be ready to propose a training program for presentation to the Assistant Directors at the next meeting.

Mr. Dulles said that Mr. Carey was worried about the letter to Matthew Marks in Treasury because it indicated CIA cooperation in enforcement. He was informed that the memorandum applied solely to and that there was no connection with O/O involved.

Mr. Jackson suggested that where possible all material be submitted to him prior to submission to the Director. He informed Mr. McConnell that he did not consider that this necessarily would apply to vouchers for signature.

Mr. Reber said that both Dr. Milliken and Mr. Douglas would prefer to have a delay in briefing the IAC on the reorganization of CIA.
